What is this type of insurance?

This insurance is designed to help cover your mortgage payments if you cannot work for certain specific reasons.

What is insured?

- ✓ The policy provides cover if you cannot work due to an accident, illness, or involuntary unemployment (which includes giving up work to become a full-time carer) or a period of hospitalisation.
- ✓ You can choose to buy accident and sickness & unemployment cover, accident and sickness cover only, or unemployment cover only.
- ✓ The cover options you have chosen will be shown on your Certificate of Insurance.
- ✓ The policy provides up to 12 monthly benefit payments for any one claim.
- ✓ The maximum amount payable per month is £2,500, or 65% of your gross monthly earned income, whichever is the lower amount. You cannot insure more than 125% of your monthly mortgage repayments. The amount of your monthly benefit will be shown on your Certificate of Insurance.
- ✓ Claims for Accident & Sickness or Unemployment: When you take out your cover you select an "Excess Period" (this will be shown on your Certificate of Insurance). The excess period determines when you become entitled to your first monthly benefit under the policy. No benefit is payable if you return to work before your first monthly benefit becomes due. The date the first monthly benefit becomes due and will be paid is as follows.

Excess Period Selected	1 st Monthly Benefit Due & Paid
0 days	Day 29
30 days	Day 61
60 days	Day 91

After you have received your first monthly benefit, you will be entitled to 1/30th of your monthly benefit for each further day you are unable to work.

- ✓ Claims for Hospitalisation: One monthly benefit will be paid once you have been in hospital for 3 consecutive days. Thereafter we will pay 1/30th of your monthly benefit for each further day you remain hospitalised.

What is not insured?

- * You are not covered if your work is temporary, casual, occasional, or on a contract basis which does not extend beyond 12 months.

Are there any restrictions on cover?

We will not pay any claim for:

- ! Any pre-existing medical condition whether diagnosed or not, which you knew about (or should have known about) or for which you have consulted a healthcare professional, in the 12 months immediately before the start date of your insurance. This exclusion will not apply if you remain symptom free and you do not seek treatment for the condition or advice about it for a continuous period of 18 months.
- ! Backache unless there is x-ray or MRI evidence of abnormality.
- ! Any condition caused or aggravated by any psychiatric illness or any mental, nervous or stress related disorder unless you are receiving care from a psychiatric specialist or nurse.
- ! Deliberate self-inflicted injury, alcohol or drug abuse, or elective treatment.
- ! Unemployment, or the need for you to become a carer, which you were aware of at the start date of your insurance.
- ! Voluntary unemployment (unless you have given up work to become a carer) such as resignation or voluntary redundancy, or unemployment due to your misconduct.
- ! Any period for which you have received a payment instead of working a notice period.
- ! Unemployment, or the need for you to become a carer, which occurs, is notified to you, or which you become aware of during the 90 day period immediately following the start date of your insurance. This period increases to 120 days if you have a mortgage which began 30 days or more before the start date of your insurance.
- ! Unemployment which is normal or seasonal in your occupation.
